1. At the Deputies' Meeting the question [REDACTED] raised. It was the general impression that while [REDACTED] himself in [REDACTED] no attempt had been made to do so in [REDACTED] (I will pass this along to [REDACTED] inasmuch as the Director desires to expand this activity in [REDACTED])

2. [REDACTED] telephoned about the possibility of leasing a car for the Director in lieu of owning one as at present. I sent the papers which Jim Garrison prepared on this subject only a few weeks ago over for Jack's perusal and asked him to let me know if the Director desired to lease a car.

3. Matt Baird was in to talk to me about the recent JOT paper. I authorized him to make whatever distribution of it he cared to and to call a meeting sometime soon to discuss the various proposals therein.
